From The Oval Office: George Vance

Due to the press of work at the trucking business, our esteemed president will not have any words of wisdom for this great newsletter. When he writes his column next month, he promises to provide you with the wisdom that will prompt you to play your best ever golf for the rest of the year. Ha! – Editor

Also from the Editor:

As you note, this letter is considerably later than usual. This is because my computer crashed and I had to reformat the hard disk as well as reload all the programs, e-mail addresses, mailing addresses etc. This has not been a fun month for me! Any way I am now back on line and if I can get the web page to work, you will get a belated February newsletter.

From the TC's Desk

What a tournament, it was great. The weather was superb and the course is in great shape. I shot lights out along with my buddy's. Everyone fared pretty well. Ron Walker started the day by chipping in for a birdie on the first, then Craig Pitts chipped in twice. Kipp Classen took fifth place and he was closest to the hole on number 16. If you heard yelling it was us. We were yelling at every hole!

I would like to thank everybody who participated. One group did a great job with their scorecards by writing their handicaps and net score on the card...THANKS Riblett, Albier, and Torres.

Next month I will be collecting for Matchplay - $20. I need 35 people to participate. Sign-up if you're interested, it was a lot of fun last year. Matchplay will start in the March Tournament and will be completed in the Club Championship. March is also Zone Qualifying YEAH!

February 24th is the "Get Acquainted Tournament." Sign-up now. The cutoff date is the 14th. I'll try to push it as far as possible.

Mark Hemenez - TC
